The Comparative Humanities Review would like to thank all of those who contributed their time and devotion to bring this third issue to fruition. We would like to thank our advisors at the time of The Third Annual Comparative Humanities Review Conference, Professor Katherine Faull and Professor Alfred Siewers. Thank you also to Professor Slava Yastremski, Professor John Hunter, and Professor Greg Clingham, as well as the Comparative Humanities department, for their advice and encouragement. Thank you to the contributors, for your insight and enthusiasm: Allison Rittmayer, James Rickard, Steven L. McClellan, Hallie Stebbins, Lauren Rutter, Evgeny Makarov, Kseniya Bychenkova, Clara Leon, Mark Winek, and Nicholas K. Kupensky. Thanks also to all of our student translators who participated in our roundtable on the practice and process of translation at The Third Annual Comparative Humanities Review Conference: Kang Tchou, Diana Koretsky, Nicholas Rockower, Kimberly Groff, and Anja Wade. Finally, thanks again especially to Nick Kupensky, Lauren Rutter, and Kang Tchou for helping organize the conference.
